Congratulations to Epsom on winning the Frimley Fours Cup and the Clay Disc Cup, to Rees on winning the individual, and to Charterhouse on winning the Pirbright Pairs Cup.

I am most grateful to all the stalwarts who have helped to make the meeting run so smoothly. In particular thanks are due to Jack Hedditch his work doubling up as Range Officer and Stats, Mick Nash for providing the Clay Disc hardware and keeping that side of things going so well, and of course to the Guards Depot for letting us use their ranges. When I came to analyse the results, it transpired that Ramsey of Epsom had been credited with one point too many; fortunately Irving won that tie shoot anyway, thus preventing any injustice! A couple of other small corrections made no difference to the results.

In addition my thanks go to all the competitors for coming. Numbers have dropped of late, and any suggestions for attracting, and providing space for newcomers would be most welcome. I would welcome any positive comments regarding possible alternative venues or dates.

I look forward to seeing most of you again next year.
